From our 2014 survey of successful NEBOSH National General Certificate students, over 98% of respondents would recommend the qualification to others

Course Overview

The NEBOSH (National Examination Board in Occupational Safety and Health) National General Certificate is the most widely held health and safety qualification in the UK with over 175,000 people having gained the award since it was launched in 1989. This course is for managers, supervisors and staff from all types of organisations who need a broad understanding of health and safety issues. This qualification is equivalent to Level 3 NQF/ QCF and is recognised by relevant professional membership bodies such as IOSH and CIWEM.

The certificate helps them manage risks effectively. Many people take the NEBOSH National General Certificate as a first step in a career in health and safety. It provides a valuable overview, and is a sound basis for further professional study meeting the academic requirements for technical membership of IOSH (Tech IOSH).
