

CIEH Level 1 Award

Health & Safety in the Workplace

This CIEH course provides a foundation for which more detailed health and safety training and job specific training can follow

Course Overview

This is a nationally recognised and accredited entry-level health and safety course for all employees and employers. It is suitable for anyone entering the workplace for the first time – either as part of a work experience programme or at the start of employment – and those starting a new job, as part of their induction programme.

A recommended progression would be the CIEH Level 2 Award in Health & Safety in the Workplace.

Course Syllabus

The learning outcomes will be to provide an awareness of key health and safety issues and the role that employees play in keeping themselves and others free from harm at work.

- The importance of health and safety in the workplace
- The scope of hazards and risks in the workplace
- The range of workplace conditions that can affect health and safety
- The requirements relating to reporting, first aid, personal protection and personal hygiene
